My dear Will:- Rec'd. your letter. Was glad to hear from you. So you are going to leave on your trip. I sincerely wish you a pleasant and successful trip. You are going to stay away long, aren't you? I'll write you a letter soon to Alaska, so you will get it there. Be good to yourself, don't forget to do your duty towards God, for you know what is the most important of all. Now don't get sore at me, dear, for telling you this. That is the first thing I think of. I wish you went tonight. Walter and Miss Cattan are coming out. We are going to make ice cream. I don't know when I'll go home. Not for several weeks anyhow.

There is a carnival in town all week. They have plays at night. There will be dances also. Went to a party with Lena and Jerome Thursday night. Had a nice time.

I have had an awful cold in my chest since Thurs. It is some better today. It sort of worried me, as my chest hurt me. I have been doping myself up.

Well, I must close and get supper.

Well, goodbye Will, good luck to you. Here is a smile, and a kiss or more for you.

With kindest wishes, I remain
Your little friend
Sidonia.
